"What am gooder dan goodness," asked Brother Gardner, as he opened the meeting. "It am not only more comfortable to be good, but dar' am mo' money in it in de end. When a cashier robs a bank of $30,000 it looks as if he war' gettin' ahead powerful fast, but sich am not de case. De first detective who cotches him gits $5,000 für not obertakin' bim. Den he loses $2,000 in playin' keerds wid a Chicago gambler. Den he am robbed of $3,000 in nn Onnaha bordin' house. Den be invests $10,000 in mines groun' Denver an am' scooped outer elety shillin'. Long 'bout dat time he am 'rested by de bank, and what de lawyers doan' git

"It's de same wid a gambler. He may win $500 to night and lose $100 to-morrow night. One day lie may sport a watch wid two chains-de next day he may bub to pawn his coat for a brandy will be returned to de vantes.

What has dat eashier gained?

"I has figgered it up a dozen times ober, an'it allus comes out de same way. De had man may make eighty per cent, on his capital far a few short y'ars, but de fust thing he knows de skeleron han' of bankruptcy clutches him by de front an' whar am he? Be good, Be good, eben if you doan' make ober fo' per cent. at it. Outside ob all de money considerashum dar am a feelin' down under de vest dat beats a diamond ring all to pieces."

The Milwaukee (Wis.) Farm and Garden lately contained the following communication from Mr. F. Fuchs, Tiger Mills, Texas: - For sore shoulders of horses I can highly recommend St. Jacobs Oil. It is a valuable remedy, and is indispensuble for the farm, as it is of imassumable service for the differimals are subject.
